

TIMOTHY CHARLES "TIMMY" O'CONNOR

Passed away on December 26, 2023, at the age of 66 in Bethel Park. He was born on June 16, 1957 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Timmy was a man who believed in doing the right thing no matter what. He demonstrated profound courage in his life, work, and leadership. While others would run away from chaos and danger, Timmy would run toward it, always eager to help others. His love for his family was immeasurable, and he leaves behind a legacy of character, candor, and passion. Timmy was preceded in death by father, Bernard O'Connor, and his mother, Betty Kovac O'Connor. He is survived by his wife Diane Flood O'Connor; son, Justin (Lucia) O'Connor, son, Thomas "TJ" O'Connor; daughter, Emilie (Adam) Mullins, daughter, Molly Jones; and grandchildren Noah, Angela, Joseph, and Monica. He is also survived by his brother Ken (Janet) O'Connor; sister Kathy (Jeff) Laslow; and his best friend Reyne Kacsuta. Timothy attended Carrick High School and went on to earn a Bachelor's degree from the University of Pittsburgh, as well as Master's Degree from Duquesne University and the University of Pittsburgh. He also completed the FBI National Academy. Timmy proudly served in the Army and had a distinguished military career. After his military service, he dedicated 35 years to the City of Pittsburgh, rising from patrolman to Commander. He then served as the Chief of Police in Bethel Park for 9 years, accumulating a total of 48 years in law enforcement. His extraordinary bravery earned him the distinction of being the first Bethel Park Police Officer to receive the "Medal of Valor", the department's highest honor. In an era where faith and law enforcement wavered, Timmy stood resolute, refusing to conform to passing trends and movements against police. He embodied the quintessence of old-school policing.
