

ANGUS MacDONALD

Angus MacDonald passed away peacefully, surrounded by loved ones, on December 27, 2023, at the age of 92. His life was marked by a quiet strength, unwavering dedication to his family, and a commitment to duty.

He was born on February 28, 1931, in Pittsburgh, PA, the son of James and Margaret (Brewster) MacDonald. After graduating from Alderdice High School in 1949, Angus enlisted in the U.S. Army and served with dedication in the Korean War. This service had a profound and lasting impact on him.

After returning from service in Korea, Angus met the love of his life, Carol (Bauer), and together they built a loving family, celebrating 66 years of marriage in August. His love and devotion to his children, grandchildren and great-grandchild was evident in all that he did. He provided a steady presence, offering support and strength during times of joy and hardship.

After his military service, Angus worked for more than 30 years for J & L Steel as a fire bricklayer. After leaving J&L, Angus worked as a security guard at Friendship Village where "Mac" always engaged in friendly conversation with the residents. In recent years, he was very active with The Korean War Veterans Association of Western Pennsylvania, Chapter 74, a membership that brought him many meaningful friendships, among both other veterans and members of the Korean community. His calm demeanor and warm spirit touched the lives of all who knew him.

Angus is survived by his loving wife, Carol; daughters, Michele Frennier and her husband, William and Pamela Maniet and her husband Matthew; four grandchildren, Amanda Burke (Colin), Megan Green (Andre), Brittany Maniet, and Benjamin Maniet (fiancée Kayden); great-grandson, Michael Green; one brother, James MacDonald and his wife Marlene; and many nieces and nephews.
