

NANCY QUINN CLIPPER

Nancy Quinn Clipper, age 88, passed peacefully with her husband, Ron Clipper and devoted friend, Arlene O'Toole by her side, in the comfort of her own home, on Sunday, December 31, 2023. Nancy was born on November 11, 1935, in Clairton, the daughter of the late David and Ruth (Tandy) Crosser.

In addition to her parents, Nancy was predeceased by her first husband, James Lawrence Quinn; her grandson, Brian Quinn; and her sisters, Lorraine Bodner and Dolores Satterfield.

Nancy's passion for beauty and her community was evident early on. She not only thrived as a cosmetologist and hairdresser, touching the lives of many with her skilled hands and warm conversation, but she also proudly held the title of Miss Clairton in 1953.

A woman of deep faith, Nancy was the gracious host of bible studies in her basement, where she nurtured a community of fellowship and spiritual growth. Her home was a haven for many, a place where wisdom, laughter, and prayer intertwined seamlessly. Those who knew Nancy will fondly remember her for the energy and enthusiasm she brought to everything she did. Her love for jitterbug dancing was infectious, and she could often be found swirling on the dance floor. Golfing was another joy in her life, providing endless hours of fun and friendly competition.

Nancy's marriage to her devoted husband, Ron, was a testament to true partnership and love. Together, they found bliss in the simple pleasures of life, such as walking their beloved dogs around the serene trails of Mountain Pines near 7 Springs. The couple cherished the warmth of fireside gatherings, where stories and dreams were shared in the cozy glow of the firepit.

As time passed and Nancy found it difficult to venture outside for her treasured walks, Ron ensured that the beauty of the outdoors was never far from her reach. He adorned their home with vibrant flowers, creating a sanctuary that allowed Nancy to feel the embrace of nature from the comfort of her home.

Nancy's spirit, like the flowers that surrounded her, will bloom eternally in the memories of her family, friends, and all who loved her.
