He was employed with U.S. Steel Edgar Thompson Works in Braddock for over 44 years before retiring in 2016. Chuck was proud to have been a lifelong resident of North Braddock, and was also honored to dedicate a lifetime of service to his community through his involvement with the North Braddock Volunteer Fire Department. He held various leadership positions within the department, most notably Chief of Department. Chuck was known to assist with the annual street fairs and with the preparation of the haluski for the Lenten fish fry. He also received certification to work for the local HAZMAT team. Chuck was an avid Pittsburgh Steelers fan. Chuck treasured the memories he made spending time fishing in Pymatuning and visiting the Farma Campground in Greenville, PA. Being at camp always made him feel a sense of peace and relaxation. Chuck was a man of few words, but when he spoke with his unique sense of humor, he was quick to draw a laugh or smile from anyone close to him. He will be sorely missed.
