George was born on August 16, 1950, in Pittsburgh, PA, and graduated from high school in Edgewood, PA. A proud alumnus of Adrian College, he graduated in 1972 and went on to marry his college sweetheart, Sue, on June 23, 1973. George and Sue began their life together in Bainbridge, OH, eventually making Raleigh, NC, their home in 1984. George enjoyed a successful career in sales and marketing, culminating as the VP of Marketing for Geotechnics. His dedication to his work was matched only by the enduring friendships he formed with colleagues and clients. A true sports enthusiast, George found joy in playing, watching, and coaching football, basketball, golf, tennis, soccer, and baseball. His passion for sports extended to his children, where he actively engaged with their teams, events, and activities. However, George's greatest joy was his family. Devoted to his children, Katie (AJ) Miller and Scott (Grace) Moyer, and his cherished grandchildren, Ava and Noah Miller, and Alistair Moyer, George made countless memories with them, sharing in their triumphs and challenges. George was a friend to all and never knew a stranger. He was the life of the party, greeting friends with the perfect margarita and his famous "Grandma Moyer" dip. George also cultivated lifelong friendships, ready with a warm smile and a welcoming spirit. His positive impact on the lives of those around him will be remembered and cherished.
