

JEFFREY W. TOTT

Age 71, of Sewickley Heights, on Friday, December 29, 2023. Beloved husband for 22 years for Brandy Bock-Tott.

Loving father of Natalie Marie Tott (Robert) and Jeffrey William Tott II (Allison); grandfather of Princess Sienna Callaghan; brother of Carl Tott, Liz Tott, and the late Tim Tott; brother-in-law of Bonnie Jean Bock; also survived by his pets Fred, Prince Jr., Willy, Hopper, Lula, and Tigger.

To say that Jeffrey Tott's personality was larger than life is a massive understatement, and that was because he had an immense passion for life. Jeff had fantastic business acumen and his successful endeavors were wide ranging. He received his MBA at Columbia University in New York and was then employed at Price Waterhouse Cooper as a business consultant. Next, he was hired to be a turnaround specialist for steel companies at Sauer Group, which provided contracting services for Fortune 500 companies. Then Jeff was made CEO of Specialty Bar Corp., in Blairsville, PA, where he eventually bought the company. Specialty Bar obtained large military contracts providing connecting pins for military track vehicles and high-grade fasteners for power generation turbines. He sold the company and retired at 45. Jeffrey Tott produced featured films including 10th and Wolf and A Month of Sundays, was a consummate collector and lover of art, animals, trees, watches, travel and the outdoors. Jeffrey was a great father, husband and friend with a huge heart.
