

CHRISTOPHER MIHALICK

December 25, 1957 - December 25, 2023

In Loving Memory of Christopher Mihalick

Christopher Mihalick, born on Christmas Day, in 1957, in Pittsburgh, PA, peacefully passed away on his 66th birthday, December 25, 2023, in The Villages, Florida. Chris, as he was affectionately known, was the beloved son of Helen Mihalick and the late John Mihalick. He is survived by his longtime significant other, Kimberly James; and his siblings, Linda Luff, John Mihalick (Cindy), and Janet Macek. Chris leaves behind a legacy of love through his surviving children, Ashley Mihalick and Taylor Mihalick, who will cherish his memory.

Professionally, Chris dedicated many years to country club management, showcasing his skills and passion in the industry until his well-deserved retirement. In his leisure time, he was an avid golfer, finding joy and solace on the golf course. His love for the sun was evident in his radiant personality. After retirement, Chris embarked on a new adventure with Kim, moving to San Clemente, Ecuador. Together, they owned and managed "Cottages by the Sea" creating a haven of serenity and joy for those fortunate enough to visit.

Chris will be remembered for his warmth, kindness, and unwavering love for his family. He leaves behind a legacy of laughter, shared moments, and a deep appreciation for life. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to your favorite charity in Chris's honor.
