

LOTA HALL BROWN

Age 89, of Beltzhoover, passed away on Monday, January 1, 2024.

Lota Hall Brown, beloved wife, mother, Nanny, friend, and neighbor, passed at age 89 surrounded by family. She joins her late husband, William A. Brown, & children Jeffrey, Sheila, & Beverly in eternal rest. She is mourned by her daughter Pamela (Ezell), grandchildren Beverly, Jeremiah, Robert (Martin), Jennifer, Justin, David, and Alicia (Davone), many great-grandchildren, cousins & extended family. They all miss her contagious laughter & smile.

Mrs. Brown was raised in Boston MA by loving parents William & Lula Hall as the youngest of 7 children. After high school, she was among the first black women hired at John Hancock Insurance Company. Upon moving to Pittsburgh PA in the 1960s to Beltzhoover neighborhood, she held the same honor at Gimbel's Department Store. She cherished her Jehovah's Witness faith & was active in her local Seniors club.
