

ANGELA CHERYL (GOSS) ZUHL

Angela Cheryl (Goss) Zuhl, age 46, of Whitehall and formerly of Erie, departed suddenly and unexpectedly on January 5, 2024. Angela was the cherished and beloved wife of Eric Zuhl; adoring, doting, and fiercely proud mommy of Jacqueline and Liliana; treasured daughter of Richard E. and Marjorie L. (McNamara) Goss; loved sister of Adam (Crystal) Goss; dearest aunt of Carson and Brett Goss; and devoted daughter-in-law of Michael and Pamela Zuhl. Angie is also survived by numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and other loving family and friends.

Angie and Eric delighted over their girls as they explored their interests and expressed themselves through art, swimming, cheer, horseback riding, singing, and especially dance. It was Angie's joy to watch Jacqui and Lily on peaceful summer weekends splashing in the lake with godsons Carson and Brett, while nurturing lifelong family memories and traditions. Angie and Eric revere their family and friends in their Whitehall neighborhood, St. Gabriel Church and Mother of Mercy Academy, their extended Erie family, their UDC family, and beyond.

Angie was born in Erie on April 28, 1977. From childhood to adulthood, Angie shined her brilliant light and gorgeous smile, illuminating the lives and spirits of everyone she met. After graduating from Harbor Creek High School, Angie attended Washington & Jefferson College, and as a member of Delta Gamma, made and maintained lifelong friendships with her cherished Delta Girls crew. Angie then went on to complete her Masters of Public and International Affairs at the University of Pittsburgh.
