

MARGARET FRANCES HYMAN JOHNSTON

Margaret Frances Hyman Johnston, age 97, passed away on December 14, 2023. She was born November 2, 1926, to John Charles Hyman and Melissa Scott Phillips; preceded in death by her husband of 64 years, T. Allen Johnston, Jr., survived by three daughters: Melissa Hoople (Jim), Olivia Johnston (Peter Fenlon) and Marian Wilson (Jack) and two grandchildren Emily George (Michael) and Matthew Wilson. Born in Richmond, VA, she was raised there as well as in her family's ancestral home of Dalton, NC. She was graduated from Woman's College of the University of North Carolina with a BFA. She and Allen lived 30 years in Pittsburgh, PA, before moving to NC. Margaret was very active in the Daughters of the American Revolution, Daughters of the American Colonists, Colonial Dames, Southern Club of Pgh., and Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church. She loved world history, patriotism, and family history. She was an accomplished seamstress and loved art, crafting, and tending the yard. A service will be held in North Carolina. Donations in her memory may be made to the Daughters of the American Revolution. www.DAR.org/generalfund.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb