

LOIS A. FLANIGAN

Age 71, of Florida, passed away on Friday, December 8, 2023. She was born on August 13, 1952 in McKeesport to her loving parents, Edward F. and Gertrude T. Flanigan. She was the beloved sister of Lorraine Dees of Pittsburgh, Robert E. (Deborah) Flanigan M.D. of Allison Park, and the late Richard J. (Nancy) Flanigan of Sun City Center, FL; dear aunt of Elizabeth D. (Trevor) Janis of Westport, CT, Cathy A. (Jeff) Schock of Rochester, NY, Ryan M. (Dara) Flanigan M.D. of Latrobe, Erin E. (Clay) Wetherill of Allison Park, Sean M. (Taylor) Flanigan of South Park, Kelly M. (Geoff) Locher of Pittsburgh. Also survived by several great-nieces and nephews. Growing up, Lois excelled in basketball, softball, and tennis. Lois graduated from West Mifflin South High School in 1970, and from Slippery Rock University with a degree in Education in 1974. She coached a women's basketball CYO team for Holy Spirit Catholic Church. For many years, Lois pursued a career in Pittsburgh as an officer with the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board. When she retired to Florida to chase the sun, she began a second career teaching at her favorite Montessori elementary school and also volunteered at the Miami Open Tennis Tournament. Lois cherished her time helping to raise her beloved stepchildren, Emily (Brian Petersen) Danyluk of Rockville, MD and Kristen (Josh Dalley) Danyluk of Chicago, IL. She derived joy from working with children and young people. She was an avid reader and enjoyed traveling, cooking, fishing, and paddleboarding. A memorial will be held on Wednesday, January 17th at 10:30 a.m. at St. Mary of the Assumption Church Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish (Glenshaw). Interment to follow at Lebanon Church Cemetery (West Mifflin). Memorial contributions may be made to Habitat for Humanity.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb