

DIANA REEBLE SHERROW

Diana Reeble Sherrow was born March 5, 1943, in Pittsburgh, PA, and died Saturday, December 16, 2023.

She attended Upper St. Clair High School and continued to Robert Morris University. She began working at Deloitte Haskins & Sells approximately around 1972, as an executive secretary.

Diana married James Sherrow, from Houston, PA, who passed on April 28, 2010. Her sister, Cheryl Reeble Gaydos, died on March 3, 2008. Diana is survived by her daughter, Debi Sherrow Logan; grandsons, Brett Fischer, and Drew Logan; nephew, Charlie Sherrow, and Lawrence Gaydos; nieces, Lana Sherrow McElmurry, and Irma Sherrow.

Together Diana and Jim enjoyed a happy marriage for over 47 years. They shared a wonderful life of travel while creating beautiful memories along the way with friends and family! They both especially loved traveling on cruise ships and making countless new friends along the way.

Diana was known to those who loved her as a kind outgoing, funny, happy-go-lucky woman, a harsh word she never spoke about anyone. Diana spent the latter part of her life in the Senior Facility Juniper Village at South Hills in Greentree, PA. There she was somewhat of a Queen Bee, always sporting a hat that usually was bedecked in jewels!

Never having children of her own she became a true second mom to Debi and especially enjoyed being a grandmother to Brett and Drew.

Her very loving family of nieces and nephews brought Diana so much joy and happiness.

Loved by many, Diana, you will be missed!

A small closed-casket service was held at 1 pm, on Thursday, December 21, 2023, at the MCLLIVAINE-SPEAKMAN FUNERAL HOME in Houston, PA.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb