

LINDA KAY POGUE

Devoted Wife and Mother

We are deeply saddened to announce that Linda "Nimmy" Kay Pogue, age 75, passed away on Thursday, Jan. 11, 2024 at her Imperial home, with her husband and daughter by her side.

Linda was born April 1, 1948, in Wilkesburg, PA to the late Joseph D. and Vivian L. Khouri. Linda is survived by her husband, James; and daughter, Jennifer; sister, Barbara (Joseph) Lawlor; sister-in-law, Patricia (John)

Snow; sister-in-law, Maria Pogue; and many nephews and a niece.

After graduating from Penn Hills High, Linda earned a BA degree from Edinboro University. While attending Edinboro, Linda met her husband, James "Jimbo" Pogue. They married on March 27, 1971. They were lifelong companions and friends. Linda and James were blessed with a daughter, Jennifer.

Linda became a very successful and much-loved English teacher at Westinghouse High and Brashear High Schools. She touched the lives of many students during her life.

"Nimmy" will always be remembered for having an exceptional sense of humor. She was an amateur detective, sometime gambler, and lover of animals. She welcomed homeless dogs and cats. She always said "The LORD sent them to me."

Linda was a compassionate friend, cherished sister, loving mother and devoted wife.

A period of celebration of Linda's life will be held on Saturday, Jan. 20, 2024 from 2-4 p.m. at Valley Presbyterian Church, Imperial, PA. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Beaver County Humane Society or other rescue organizations.
