

JAMES PATRICK LESKO

Age 73, of Munhall on January 12, 2024. Jim was a former employee of Allegheny County and his family's funeral home. He took much pride in raising funds for the Kane Foundation, which provided care, entertainment and comfort for Kane Hospital residents. A graduate of St. Thomas Moore Prep School, Colchester, Conn. He was a passionate fan of the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame. One of his favorite things was the NCAA March Madness Basketball Tournament, where his friends and family would gather together in his beloved basement. Enjoyment came from attending all of his grandchildren's activities and spending time with his family on vacation. Preceding him in death are his parents, Joseph and Irene (Anderson) Lesko, brothers, Robert and Richard Lesko; and baby son, Tommy. Jim was dearly cared for by his devoted wife of 52 years, Diane (Markoff) Lesko. His final words to her were "I love you". He dearly loved and was proud of his two sons, James (Susan) Lesko and Daniel (Melissa) Lesko. Loving Papou to Tyler, Marlaina, Nicholas, Michael and Jacob Lesko. Loving brother of Catherine "Kitty", Mary Jo, Timothy (Mary Pat) Lesko. Brother-in-law of Kathleen Menzie Lesko, Nicholas (Mary) and Edward (Marilyn) Markoff and the late Jerry Kynik. Also, many loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Jim requested no flowers, plants or throws. Family asked that donations be made to the Bulgarian Macedonian National Education and Cultural Center (BMNECC). Visitation Monday and Tuesday, 1-4 and 6-8pm in R. V. ANDERSON FUNERAL HOME, 315 East Tenth Avenue, Homestead. Mass of Christian Burial Wednesday, 10 am in St. Thomas the Apostle Parish, St. Maximilian Kolbe Church, 363 W. 11th Ave., Homestead, PA.
