She is the daughter of the late Carl J. and Rose Lefkowitz. She was married for 62 years, until the recent passing of her husband, Lou. Her decline since his death reflects their enduring love.

She is survived by her beloved sons, Ivan (Jackie)

She was foremost a homemaker, but also worked as medical secretary, sold advertisements for a local paper, worked at the Hadassah Thrift Shop and Beth Shalom daycare.

She loved family, friends, flowers, beaches, and chocolate. She was opinionated when it was important but also a great listener. She will be missed for her dedication and love for her family and her indelible impression.
