

THOMAS EDGAR WILEY

Thomas Edgar Wiley, a World War II veteran, passed away on January 17, 2024, at Ridgecrest Senior Living, McCandless, at the age of 100. Born in Columbus, Ohio, on June 23, 1923, he enlisted in the Army Air Corps on December 7, 1942, and was credited with 57 missions as a B-17 pilot flying over southern Germany. Tom married Mary Lillian Norman on October 24, 1945, in Haymarket, Virginia. They built a family together, living in Trumansburg, New York and Gahanna, Ohio, before moving to Pittsburgh in 1960, joining U.S. Steel, and marketing the company's agricultural products for 22 years. He is survived by three children, James (Kristi) Wiley of Menlo Park, California, Janet Wiley, and John Wiley of Pittsburgh; two grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren. One son, Joseph Wiley, preceded him in death. After Mary's passing in 1999 due to complications of Parkinson's disease, Tom found love again with Joan Dawson, and they shared over two decades of companionship. A funeral service to honor Tom Wiley's remarkable life will be held at 11 a.m. on Monday, January 22, 2024, at Christ Episcopal Church. Tom will rest next to Mary at Mt. Royal Cemetery. Funeral arrangements are entrusted to H.P. BRANDT FUNERAL HOME. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Christ Church (christchurchpgh.org) or Veterans Breakfast Club (veteransbreakfastclub.org).
