

CHARLES EDWARD ROSKO

In Loving Memory of Charles Edward Rosko (1957-2024)

Charles Edward Rosko, known to his loved ones as Chuck, was a man of unwavering faith and integrity. Throughout his life, he faced numerous health challenges, yet he never lost his fighting spirit. On January 21, 2024, surrounded by his family, Chuck peacefully passed away at his home. Chuck is survived by his wife, Elizabeth, and their children Benjamin (Natalie), Zachary (Roxanne), Nathaniel (Erica), and Samuel. He also leaves behind his cherished grandson, Logan. Chuck is also survived by his sister, Mary Pat Acquaviva, his nephew, Rob Acquaviva, and his niece, Rachel Carpenter. Professionally, Chuck excelled as a successful pharmaceutical sales representative, winning numerous awards. Personally, Chuck's hobbies were a testament to his creativity. He loved creating arts and crafts, many of which he generously donated. Chuck also had a passion for collecting antique memorabilia and a special fondness for arcade video games. Earlier in his life, he developed Atari games, publishing titles such as "Rafferty Run" and "Krebs Cycle." Additionally, Chuck took great joy in watching movies, having seen well over 1000 of them in theaters. Lastly, Chuck's devout Catholic faith was a guiding force in his life, as he actively supported the church and dedicated his time to assisting with various church services. Above all, Chuck was a proud and loving father who possessed the remarkable ability to strike up conversations with anyone, anywhere, about anything. Chuck's memory will forever be treasured by his family, friends, and all those whose lives he touched. May he rest in eternal peace. Funeral arrangements will be shared with family and close friends on Wednesday, January 24, 2024, 5 p.m. - 8 p.m. at the JOB FUNERAL HOME & CREMATORY, INC.
