

DR. WILLIAM H. "BILL" MILLER

Dr. William H. "Bill" Miller was born on December 22, 1929, in McVeytown, PA, the oldest of six siblings. Through sheer determination and a lifelong work ethic, he became a brilliant thoracic surgeon. He graduated from Juniata College in 1953 and Hahnemann Medical School in 1957. He served as a base surgeon in the US Air Force from 1959-1961. He worked as a cardiac surgeon in Pittsburgh from 1969 to 1993 at Shadyside Hospital, Forbes Health System and St. Margaret Memorial Hospital (Chief of Surgery until 1992). He passed away peacefully on January 12, at the age of 94, in San Diego, CA. He is survived by his three daughters, Jennifer Miller-Arsenault (Daniel), Rachel Harken (Dwight), and Sara Llana (Asel), and his five grandchildren, Charlie and Nico Harken, Jacob and Jane Miller-Arsenault, and Cece Llana. He is also survived by his wife Sally Gault Miller and her family. The family would like to thank Noble Living, especially Elizabeth Gastelum, for taking such good care of him in his final years.
