We hold dear our memories of Jack and his love of his family. We remember endless summers at Conneaut Lake, countless rounds of golf with his father and brother and many golfing buddies, his lifelong interest in real estate and his touching love for his dogs, who in the end were all named "Teddy."

Never one to brag, Jack's kind heart belied the spirit of a true competitor. In a golf career that spanned decades Jack was the 1958 West Pen Four Ball Champion with his father, WPGA Father/Son Champion twice with his father and the Valley Brook Country Club Champion seven times between 1968 and 1996, the Senior Champion four times between 1997 and 2022 and the 1997 Medal Play Champion. Jack was a 1959 graduate of Duke University where he was a successful member of the Duke University Golf Team, the Student Body President and a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

Jack was a highly-respected leader in business in the South Hills of Pittsburgh. During his successful career he grew his grandfather's real estate business, H.G. Benson & Sons, into the top residential real estate firm in the region before his retirement.

A celebration of Jack's life will be held at Valley Brook Country Club on Tuesday, February 20 from 2-4 PM. The family invites you to join them in remembering and celebrating the life of their husband, brother, father, uncle, grandpa/pop pop and great-grandpa.
