

EVELYN JUNE "EVIE" SOLOMON

Evelyn June "Evie" Solomon joined her best friend, husband and love of her life, Alvin "Al" Solomon, in eternal rest on Sunday, February 11, 2024. Our "sweetheart" would have been 95 years old on Valentine's Day.

She is survived by her children, Eric Solomon and Tamra Marks of Monroeville, PA, Ronna and Clay Spitz of Houston, TX and Louis and Sheri Solomon of Boca Raton, FL. Evie was the beloved grandmother of Jason Spitz and Rebecca Schenker, Sarah Spitz and Adam Hockenberry and Shayna Solomon. She was also the loving great-grandmother of Ari and Ezra Spitz and Julian Hockenberry.

Evie was a lifelong and very proud resident of Pittsburgh. She attended Roosevelt Elementary and Taylor Allderdice Junior and Senior High Schools.

Evie was completely devoted to her children and would do anything to make their lives happy. She would think up games to play with her grandchildren to keep them laughing. Evie had a wonderful sense of humor and could always brighten the mood with a joke or a song. She was very sociable, she made friends easily, and she enjoyed having a pleasant chat with everyone she met, from friends and neighbors to waiters and grocery clerks. Some of her activities included writing skits for Jewish organizations and playing Mah Jongg with friends. She started playing golf late in life with her husband who was totally devoted to the game, joining the Clover Bells ladies golf league.

The service and interment took place at Beth Shalom Cemetery on Tuesday, February 13, 2024. Contributions in her memory may be made to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society (<https://www.nationalmssociety.org/donate>), her favorite charity. Arrangements entrusted to RALPH SCHUGAR CHAPEL, INC.
