Kathryn was proud to have been born and raised in Chalfant Boro. She attended Carnegie Mellon University, where she obtained both her Bachelors's and Master's degrees in Psychology. Kathryn was also an employee with C.M.U. for over 30 years, working primarily for the Human Resources department as an employment specialist, as well as several other departments for the university. Something that brought Kathryn great joy in life was her involvement as a volunteer for the Make-A-Wish Foundation. She took pleasure in knowing her efforts helped warm the hearts of children in need. Kathryn was recognized in a local human interest news story for being able to fulfill the wish of a young girl from Rankin who wished for a princess bedroom, a wish Kathryn and many volunteers were pleased to fulfill. She was a faithful person and was a dedicated volunteer to the Holy Resurrection Church in Forest Hills, where she held the position of Secretary and member of church council.
