

RAYMOND F. GOOD

Of West Mifflin, PA, passed away peacefully on February 27, 2024, at the age of 91. Raymond was born on April 23, 1932, raised in Hazelwood, PA, to the late Fred and Helen Good.

Raymond is survived by his children Raymond (Jennifer) Good and Tami Good; his treasured grandchildren, Raymond and Stephen Good; his caring siblings, Helen Jaramillo, Joan Demasi, Fred Good, and Sister-in-Law

Caroline Good. Predeceasing him were his loving wife Mary Ann Good; parents, Fred and Helen Good, and his brother, Donald Good.

Raymond was known for his dedication to the family business, the Pittsburgh Smelting and Refining Company, an institution established in the 1800s. Raymond was an enthusiast of classic cars, owning a few of his own. In his later years, his daughter Tami became the embodiment of devotion, offering unmatched care and companionship, ensuring that his final days were spent in comfort and dignity.

Raymond's example he set as a hardworking perfectionist will forever remain a beacon for his family. His life will be fondly remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing him.
