

REBECCA "BECKIE" LYNNE MALIZIO

July 6, 1968 - February 25th, 2024

Rebecca "Beckie" Lynne Malizio, a woman whose life was a testament to resilience and perseverance, passed away on February 25, 2024, at the age of 55.

Beckie is survived by her beloved children, Dylan Wallace and Rainey Tsekouras; her mother, Rose Marie (Zupcic) Malizio; and her siblings, Gina, Ray, and Ryan Malizio.

Beckie was a vibrant spirit, full of promise and potential.

She loved the summertime and beaches, finding comfort and joy in the beauty of nature. Her kindness touched the lives of those fortunate enough to know her. Despite facing challenges along her journey, Beckie remained steadfast in her compassionate spirit and unwavering determination to overcome adversity. She possessed a beautiful soul, characterized by her strength, courage, and the boundless love she shared with those around her.

May Beckie find peace and solace in the arms of eternity, liberated from the pain that once burdened her in life.

Rest in peace, Beckie. Your spirit will continue to live on in the hearts of all who love you
