

EILEEN BRADFORD LIVINGSTON

Eileen Bradford Livingston age 93, passed away on Friday, March 1, 2024. Mother of Nancy, Bob (Bunny) and Wayne. Grandmother of Brad (Roselyn), Molly, Meri Jo (Mark), Abby, Dane (Aubree) and Deanna. Great-grandmother of Preston, Evan, Bella, John, Maya, Danny and Benji. She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Jack Livingston. Eileen was an amazing athlete and champion of women's sports. Feeling a need for further education when she was thirty-five, she pursued a college degree, masters degree and, finally in her mid-60's, a doctorate in Health and Wellness from the University of Pittsburgh. While an undergraduate at the University of Pittsburgh - in her forties - Eileen was the Varsity #1 singles tennis player. She also played competitive volleyball - attending tournaments in Pennsylvania and out of state. After graduating from the University of Pittsburgh with her undergraduate degree, she was asked to start a women's sports program at Duquesne University. At first, she not only had to find players but also coach the various women's teams. Eventually, Eileen became Duquesne's Assistant Athletic Director and finally, in the mid-80's, the first Division 1 NCAA Athletic Director. In her later years, she proudly watched the progress made in women's sports. She also became fascinated with genealogy; producing genealogies for family and friends. Eileen's family will miss her relentless enthusiasm for all things sports related and her love of life and family. Arrangements were handled by the JOHN F.
