

YVETTE A. LEVY

Yvette was the beloved wife of the late Sidney Adelsberg and the late Bernard Levy; the beloved mother of Cindy (Paul) Lucas, Keith (Cindy) Adelsberg, Steven (Donna) Adelsberg; sister of Ruth Kramer and the late Samuel Bales. She had four grandchildren: Aaron Lucas (Deanna Buehrle), Sydnee Lucas (Kiko Velez), Sarah Adelsberg, and Justin Adelsberg; and two great-grandchildren, Margot and Avi Velez. She also had many loved nieces and nephews.

Yvette A. Levy passed away on March 2, 2024, surrounded by loved ones. She leaves behind a legacy of love, intelligence, style, and cherished memories. Eve was born on January 22, 1934, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania to Hyman and Sarah Bales. She was ahead of her time and received a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from the University of Pittsburgh (1956).

Eve was always in the know. She was sharp, witty, stunning, elegant, and a true fashion icon. Pittsburgh was home to her. The stories she had were rich and the friendships she had were deep. She was an avid bridge player, loved going to the movies, never turned down a shopping opportunity, and despite her small frame could win any eating competition, especially if pizza and thumbprint cookies were involved.

Eve loved and was so loved. Her legacy will be carried on through her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren who loved their "Gigi" dearly and for the last several years ensured that her picture stay on clear display in their room.

Yvette, Eve, Evie, Y-vette, how lucky are we for the 90 years we had with you. And though that still doesn't feel like it was enough, your memory will carry on as a blessing.

A celebration of Eve's life took place for close family and friends. Contributions can be made in her honor to the Greater Pittsburgh Food Bank, 1 N. Linden St., Duquesne, PA 15110, or a charity of your choice. Arrangements entrusted to RALPH SCHUGAR CHAPEL, INC.

www.schugar.com

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb