She was a member of Queen of the Rosary Church (formerly St. Cecilia), where she contributed her time and energy to various activities, including the Christian Mothers and the Friday fish fries.

Joan's warmth and friendliness were evident to all who knew her. She had an innate ability to make everyone feel welcomed and valued. Her impeccable sense of style and grace was admired by many, always dressed perfectly, and polished, a true reflection of her inner elegance. Her memory will be cherished by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

A Memorial Mass to Celebrate Joan's Life will be held at a later date, allowing family and friends to come together and honor her life. In lieu of flowers, her family requests that donations be made to The Michael J. Fox Foundation for Parkinson's Research in Joan's memory.

Joan's departure leaves a void that cannot be filled, but her spirit will continue to inspire and guide those who were fortunate enough to know her. May she rest in eternal peace.
