

ROBBIN DIANE BRANCH

Robbin Diane Branch, 69, passed away peacefully at home, surrounded by her loving family, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on February 27, 2024.

Born on April 22, 1954, at Shadyside Hospital in Pittsburgh, she was the daughter of Eleanor Louise Loving, and the second oldest of seven sisters.

Robbin was preceded in death by her parents; maternal and paternal grandparents; her youngest sister, Amy Jo Branch; and her eldest sister, Cheryl Branch.

Robbin lived her life rooted in faith in God. She accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior and was baptized at Mt. Ararat Baptist Church in 1967, and remained an active member.

Robbin attended Pittsburgh Public Schools and graduated from Peabody High School in 1973. She enjoyed singing in the Mt. Ararat Young Peoples Choir and participating in Girl Scouts with her mother, sisters, and friends. Her hobbies included, cooking, sewing, traveling, and a fondness for gardening.

She attended the Community College of Allegheny County majoring in Early Childhood Development, as she always loved learning about and caring for children. Robbin followed her passion by providing daycare services for family and friends for a number of decades before beginning her career at Highmark, where she retired.

Robbin's life was a collection of chapters that told a story of dedication, love, and kindness. She was a very outgoing, genuine, selfless, and caring person. She could spark up a conversation and make friends wherever she went.

Robbin is the loving mother of two wonderful daughters, that she was so very proud of, Chloe Ann Louise and Courtney Ann Branch. She was the devoted grandmother to grandson, Camden Branch, and granddaughter, Kyonna Branch. She spent the majority of her time being a present and integral part of their lives.

Robbin is survived by her daughters; cherished grandchildren; sisters, Wendy Branch, Cynthia Smith, Michele Bullard-Jackson, and Zina Branch; a host of nieces and nephews, their progeny, other relatives, and beloved friends.

Robbin Diane Branch will be remembered as a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. Her grace, intellect, and kindness will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

The Funeral Service will be held at Mt. Ararat Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, PA, on March 21 2024, at 10:00 AM, officiated by Senior Pastor Reverend Dr. William H. Curtis.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb