Married John Jones in 1948 and started their family of eight in 1950. She was a full-time Mom from 1950-1991. In 1991, she became a volunteer at Mayview State Hospital, serving 17 years. She served in various capacities at St. Barbara church in Presto, PA, and community events. Helen was a wonderful, caring, and loving mother to her children. Her kindness did not end there but was poured out by her to many relatives, and people in the Bridgeville area. She was an excellent seamstress. She would donate her sewing skills as opportunities arose. With this skill, she created her only daughter's wedding dress. She was very thrifty in seeking out garage sales, flea markets, and shopping at second-hand stores. Helen loved providing for the birds around her home. She loved life and traveled beyond the boundaries of western PA with her children and grandchildren. She would take cruises and vacations and loved hiking in forests. In addition, she had a talent for painting still life. Now she has immortal life beyond our comprehension with her savior Jesus Christ. As her children, we reflect upon how often she prayed for us, especially when we were going through difficult times in our own lives. We are now waiting for our heavenly reunion with her. The family appreciated the loving care that the Genesis Nursing Home gave her in the past few years of her long life.
