

JOAN JOANNE DENTEL

Beloved wife of the late James F. Dentel passed away peacefully on Monday, March 11th 2024. Loving mother of Lynne (Rick) Boyle, Jackie (Bruce) Martindale, and Jim (Tracy) Dentel. Devoted grandmother of Ryan (Erin Gerst) Boyle, Kevin (Morgan) Boyle, and Kristen Boyle, Garrett and Rachel Martindale, and Anthony and Zach Dentel. Adored sister of Rainey (Joe) Shields and Eleanor (Linda Zazvrskey)

Miele; sister-in-law of Josie (Bob) Soltis; and brother-in-law, Don Regan. Joanne will be reunited in heaven with her previously departed loved ones; including her parents, Joseph J. and Mary Rose Vigile Miele; her sisters, Justina "Tina" Cahill, Philomena "Tootsie" Mazza, Helen "Chickie" Mesko, Mary Jo Miele, Carol Reagan, Dolores Miele, Gloria Bonnar, Janice Miele Garry; and her brother, Michael A. Miele. Joanne is also survived by many cherished nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

Our beloved Mom was the heart of our family. Her unconditional love taught us the deepest meaning of care and affection. Her presence was a constant in our lives, a unifying force that never let a momentous occasion slip by unnoticed. Joanne's warmth, kindness, and generosity touched everyone she met, earning their love in return. Mom's unwavering faith and family-first belief were her guiding principles. Joanne's love for her family and dedication to her husband, children, and grandchildren were inspiring.

She was also extremely dedicated during her 35-year career as a waitress at the Hyatt Hotel in Chatham Square, formerly The Red Coach. Joanne was able to meet many of the well-known Pittsburgh dignitaries, but also many musicians and athletic celebrities known worldwide. She loved to travel with her family, especially to Las Vegas and Wildwood, NJ for their annual summer beach trip with her children. Joanne will be dearly missed by her family and friends. Mom, you will forever be in our hearts.
