

TERRENCE LEE DOUGHERTY

Terrence Lee Dougherty died of a heart attack on March 1, 2024 at home in Punta Gorda, FL, with the love of his life Linda Kerr by his side. He was preceded in death by his parents and nephew Killian. Terry was a man who loved adventure, not all of his adventures ended well but gave him great stories to tell. His biggest fail was documented in the movie GROUNDED: A High Flying Documentary.

After losing his pilots license Terry took up sailing then hang gliding became a passion. Terry leaves behind brother, James (Susan); sister, Noreen; nephews, Sean, Terry, Rory and great-nephews, Killian and Theo. Terry had great cousins especially Linda, Russ, Nick; and dear friends, Sue Armbruster, Joann Brickley, Mike Finly and Tommy Shea. There will a celebration of Terry's life in May.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb