

Their Golden Years

How wonderful it was
Two people together that long Sharing their life together Adopting their favorite song

And may I call it the great
"Moon River"

For it had crossed their paths one day
Thus vowing to love
one another Both knowing it was the only way

And how they blew out their candles together Cuddled up to their favorite movie
And so cute in their favorite attire Addressing each other as groovy

Twas' a passion both real and lovely

And kind of envied by the many they knew

Who would say to each other in private

How they'd wish their love was that true
