

Say C'est La Vie

When certain things go bad
And you cry so hard you can't see

You just pick yourself back up
And just tell that hurt
"C'est La Vie"

And if the world has left you cold
And your life's not what it should be

You just stand up for yourself

And just tell that past
"C'est La Vie"

But when the day comes that you're feeling better And you've discovered your brand new me

But your old lover shows up to court you

You just say those words
"C'est La Vie"
