

ROSA BARNETT (NEE DORIS) AVERBACH

Rosa Barnett Averbach (nee Rosa Doris Barnett) passed away peacefully on March 2, 2024, with her family beside her. She was 81 years old. Rosa was the wife of the late Ed Averbach; ex-wife of the late Raymond Weinstein; and companion to Ken Bock. Rosa was preceded in death by her parents, Herman and Beatrice (Kossis) Barnett; and her sister, Joyce (Ernie) Pearl. She was the mother of Tim and Ted Weinstein, Stuart (Pearl) Averbach, Renee (Ricky) Beitman, and Elaine (Lou) Yellin; and sister of Ruth (Jack) Adelson. She was the grandmother of Paul, Anna, Erin, and Ivy Weinstein, Elyse and Solomon Averbach, Julia (Gabe) Sirkin, Emma Yellin, Sara (Jason) Heaps, and Lauren (Etan) Shalem. Her great-grandchildren were Jacob, Arabella, Molly, and Jonah. Rosa was a world traveler who took her family on many of her numerous trips. She was a very popular lecturer, for nearly 20 years, with Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Carnegie Mellon University, and worked as a social worker, helping people with weight loss, for many years. Rosa loved doing colored pencil drawings, which now adorn many peoples' homes. Rosa was a friend to all and will be dearly missed. Funeral arrangements were private. Arrangements by BALL FUNERAL CHAPEL, INC.
