

RUSSELL DOUGHERTY

Russell Dougherty, 69, of the South Hills, peacefully at home on March 18, after his struggle with chronic liver disease. Son of the late Francis Dougherty and Elva (Sunday) Dougherty. Beloved brother of Raymond (Eileen), David, Dianne (Doyal) Miller, Nicholas, Gail Freynik, Linda Gutowski, and the late Patrick; adored uncle and "great" uncle. In addition to countless others, Russ will be missed by longtime family friend, Mary Ann (Simeone) Dougherty, who showed unending kindness and compassion during this difficult time. Russ had excellent skills on the pool table and a tremendous love of the game. He took up golfing more recently, which he enjoyed immensely. Russ loved live blues music and met many wonderful people who shared his passion. Nothing meant more to Russ than his family. He had a host of friends, both lifelong and recent, all of whom he cherished. Always a good-hearted soul, Russ will be sorely missed. Friends will be received at the JOHN F.
