Johnston, Beloved mother of Tracy Briglia (Ray Kingcaid), Christina Caragein. James Briglia, Jr. (Jennifer). Survived by the father of their children, "Moose" lames Briglia. Sr. Loving grandmother Taylor, Olivia. Pevton. Garrett. Emalia, Matthew (Brittney and daughter Gabby) and Kasey. Also survived by many nieces, nephews and cousins. Sister of Lanny, Brian (Laura), Laurel, and the late William (surviving spouse Lynne) and Leanne Johnston.

Bonnie's dedication to both her family and community is truly inspiring. Balancing raising three children, helping to run her family-owned businesses, and actively volunteering highlights her selfless nature and commitment to making a positive impact in her community. Her involvement with the Dormont Boosters, Keystone Oak's School activities, and Girl Scout Cookie drives showcases her willingness to contribute and support various organizations, ultimately making difference in the lives of others.

Bonnie was very passionate about her involvement in the Dormont Democratic Committee, which led to her running for the school board and the State Committee. In her later years, she enjoyed spending time at the casino, and you could often find her at any Texas Hold'em table. Bonne was a longtime Jeopardy and Wheel of Fortune fan. In her younger years, she even received an invitation to try out on the show

Jeopardy.
