

ANNE H. NEWTON

Anne Newton passed away peacefully on January 13, 2024, in Fort Worth, Texas. She was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on February 27, 1920, to Stewart and Anne Hamilton. She treasured her large birth family, who profoundly influenced her values, beliefs, and actions. She made time to help provide loving care for her younger sister, Cleo, and brother, Clyde.

Anne graduated Schenley High School, where she held the offices of Secretary of her Report Room, President of the Student Board, and President of the Library Club. She excelled in biology, typing, and home economics.

Anne met husband, Harry Newton, while both worked at Scaife Co., Pittsburgh, during WWII; she in administration, he in the mill.

Anne gave everything to her marriage and family, devoting herself to being a loving mother. She was blessed with sons, Harry and Charles; daughter, Patty (Ann); and granddaughter, Jacqui Brownfield (David) – a gift from stepdaughter, Leslie Nagle Ademy. Anne also held dear her nieces, Debbie Cammarn and Faith Lemler (Richard); and nephews, J.D. Newton (Tracy) and Randy Gray (Lisa); as well as many cousins.

Anne was in her element, and the long prime of her life, while an employee at Sanger-Harris. Her kind words, quick wit, and genuine smile garnered customer loyalty and enriched many friendships. A people-person, Anne led with her heart, touching many lives, and making friends along the way. She remained connected to those friendships by hosting lunches and holiday gatherings in her home.

Keen on the arts, Anne was an ardent painter of still life, and enjoyed attending the theater and symphony. Innately inquisitive, she was an avid reader, cherished nature and all it offered, enjoyed gardening and raising violets, celebrating birthdays, and special dinners at Red Lobster.

A faithful believer whose day centered on thankful prayer, Anne was a member of Westcliff Methodist/Arborlawn United Methodist Church for over 60 years. Always questioning, and always accepting, even when there was no apparent answer. Her dear friend, True Laughter, and her Guardian Angel were always close-by.

In lieu of flowers, Anne's heartfelt wishes were to benefit others by any charitable contribution to Arborlawn United Methodist Church, Shriners Hospitals for Children, and The Humane Society of North Texas.

There will be a Celebration of Anne's Life on April 12, 2024, at 11:30 a.m., in the Elizabeth Cramer Chapel located in the west side of Arborlawn United Methodist Church, 5001 Briarhaven Road, Fort Worth, Texas 76109. Parking off of International Plaza. Reception to follow.
