

DONALD PRICE DAILEY

Age 92, of Fairview, TX, formerly Valrico, FL, and Gibsonia, PA, died on March 18, 2024 after a several-month battle with Mesothelioma. Born on March 4, 1932 in Pittsburgh, PA, he was the son of the late Richard O. and Madolyn M. Price Dailey.

Preceded in death by his wife of 53 years, Olive Powers Dailey; and one brother, Thomas Dailey. Devoted and loving father of Pamela Dailey (Adrian Amstutz) of Allison Park. Beloved husband of Joan Charles-Dailey of Fairview, TX. Brother of Richard Dailey (Alice) of Missoula, Montana and Robert Dailey (Sherry) of Fairview, TX.

Don married his high school sweetheart, Olive, on July 4th 1953. Until her death in 2005, they took many vacations, long road trips, and as many cruises as possible. Don enjoyed woodworking and made many pieces of furniture, winning a blue ribbon award for one of his pieces. Don became a member of John E Mair Lodge 729, F&AM in 1958 at the age of 26, serving as Master 1971-72. He was a Contract Unit Manager with Johns Manville until he retired in 1992.

On January 1, 2011, Don met Joan Charles at a New Year's Eve party in Fairview, TX. They married on October 9, 2016. Don and Joan lived at Heritage Ranch Golf and Country Club in Fairview, where he enjoyed many activities, including Line dancing, Zumba, Drumba, and joined Joan in a few variety show acts. He was a good cook, but enjoyed dining out, especially at his favorite spot, Bonefish Grille, for salmon and Manhattans. He loved coming home to Pittsburgh a couple of times a year to visit Pam, and never missed a class reunion with his classmates from Mars High School, class of 1950.

Friends received Wednesday, 4-7 p.m, and Thursday, 10-11 a.m. at SHELLHAAS FUNERAL HOME, LTD, 5864 Heckert Road, Bakerstown. Services will follow visitation on Thursday, at 11 a.m., with Pastor Tony Schneck officiating. Interment will follow in Allegheny County Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers, donations to Mesothelioma Research Foundation of America, www.mesorfa.org.
