

LOIS COHEN

On Thursday, March 21, 2024. Beloved wife of the late Allan Cohen. Loving mother of Lawrence (Kristin) Cohen and Norman (Anne) Cohen. Cherished grandmother of Frank, Sarah, Kelsey (Anthony), Ian, Molly, Evan, Joe, and Kate; and great-grandmother of Kira. Lois is also survived by many dear friends. Lois was born in Pittsburgh to Rae and Hy Gershuny on April 25, 1933. She never left her hometown, remaining a lifelong Pittsburgher and often referring to Pittsburgh as "the best city ever." Lois adored her years as a substitute teacher within the Pittsburgh Public Schools and enjoyed joining the "Walkers & Talkers" in Schenley Park every week. She was a ubiquitous presence in Squirrel Hill, chatting and making friends wherever she went. If you were fortunate enough to meet Lois, you know firsthand how her positivity and outgoing personality was bound to make your day brighter. Everyone loved Lois. But at the end of the day, Lois most loved returning home to her family. For over 60 years, she doted on her Allan, going everywhere and doing everything with him. They were a perfect match and a wonderful couple. Lois was devoted to her sons, Larry and Norman, always encouraging them to be the best versions of themselves. However, her favorite role was being grandmother and great-grandmother. Lois treasured their time together and never missed an event for any of her eight grandchildren. She was the protective matriarch who loved her family dearly, and they loved her just as much in return. Lois will be deeply missed.
