

Asking God To Bring Back A Loved One (For Just One Day)

Have you ever got down on your knees
Begging to bring back the past Asking him to bring back a loved one
so fast

And have you cried and promised him anything Just to see that person
again
Whether husband or wife
or child
Or that person you loved back then

And did the tears roll down your face Because missing them was too much to bear
And did you walk around your house
Just wishing you'd see them there
