

HELEN D. (HORN) BAUER

Helen D. (Horn) Bauer, age 91, of Richland, passed away peacefully in her sleep on Friday, March 15, 2024.

Born December 14, 1932, in Pittsburgh, she was the daughter of the late William F. and Irma H. (Engel) Horn of Sample, PA.

She is survived by her loving sister, Linda Schubert of Glenshaw; and 12 nieces and nephews; plus Bonus Niece, Michele Taylor.

She was a 1950 graduate of Hampton High School; she lived in Ohio after her marriage and worked several office jobs in Akron, Medina areas including LAPINE Trucking Co. Helen was a faithful servant at Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Gibsonia. She performed many volunteer activities while worshipping our Great and Loving God. She always had a prayer up her sleeve for all family holiday dinners.

Her hobbies/interests included music and playing the piano, gardening and flowers, planet watching, nature, horses (especially Morgans), and most of all, her cats. She was a peaceful and contented woman, happy with her life choices and lived with no regrets. "Never get old," was her motto.

As per her wishes, no funeral or services, but memorial contributions may be made to Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church or any Animal Rescue Organization, as they were dear to her heart.

Expressions of sympathy may be shared with Helen's family at www.kingfuneralhome.com.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb