

NANCY F. SAUER

Nancy Sauer, 84, of Fayetteville, New York, and formerly of Medford, New Jersey passed away on Monday, March 25, 2024.

Nancy grew up in the Cleveland, Ohio area, attended Ohio Wesleyan University, and graduated from Temple University in Philadelphia with a degree in journalism and communications. She and her late husband David lived first in Haddonfield, NJ, where Nancy worked for a chain of weekly newspapers. Following a company move for Dave, they raised their family in McMurray, PA, near Pittsburgh, before moving to Medford, NJ 20 years later. Always active in church and civic work, Nancy used her writing and advertising skills for numerous organizations and projects both in McMurray and in Medford, where she became a reporter and editor for The Central Record newspaper, and she retired as editor of that organization's Maple Shade Press Newspaper in 2002.

In 2003 she became the secretary at Calvary Lutheran Church in Medford and financial secretary for the Little Christians at Calvary Preschool. Nancy found a special joy in serving the church family and the children of Little Christians. She retired (again) in December 2013. Nancy also enjoyed playing bridge, knitting and needlework, gardening and reading. She was a member of the Medford chapter of the American Association of University Women and its literature group. She was a longtime member of the Protestant Community Church in Medford Lakes, NJ.

After moving to Fayetteville in 2016 Nancy was a volunteer at the Fayetteville Library, a member of the Fayetteville Manlius Neighbors and Newcomers and its book group, and the Fayetteville Senior Center. She was a member of the Fayetteville United Methodist Church participating in several programs there.

Nancy was predeceased by her husband, David A. Sauer. Survivors include her son, Rodger Sauer and his wife Laura of Syracuse; her daughter, Cindy Radford and her husband Larry of Columbus, Ohio; her three grandchildren, Danielle Oakley and her husband Adam of Jackson, Pennsylvania, Jennifer Sauer of Syracuse, Michael Sauer of Syracuse; and seven great-grandchildren.

Services for Nancy will be private. Her remains will be buried next to Dave's at Odd Fellows Cemetery (now known as Parkview Cemetery), Medford, NJ. Memorial gifts may be made in Nancy's honor to the Fayetteville United Methodist Church, 601 East Genesee Street, Fayetteville, NY 13066, the Protestant Community Church, 100 Stokes Road, Medford, NJ 08055, a Food Pantry of your choice, or Habitat For Humanity.

Nancy's family wishes to acknowledge and thank the staff and personnel at Brookdale Eastside, Elderwood at Liverpool, and Touching Hearts at Home of Syracuse for the loving care provided to Nancy in her final year.

Online condolences at CarterFuneralHome.com.

CARTER FUNERAL HOME, INC.

"Family Owned with Pride"

74 Consecutive Years

315-474-1427

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb