

PETER BROWN FULTON

Passed at home after a long illness on April 2, 2024. Peter, who lived mostly in and around Fox Chapel, was a proud Shady Side Academy graduate, avid vintage car collector and passionate about his loving companion dog Greta. Peter was devoted to his native Pittsburgh, family storied history predating the Revolutionary War in Western Pennsylvania. A person of habit, Peter would make his rounds visiting with friends in the Strip District. Peter is predeceased by parents Joan and Dr. Robert Fulton and survived by his sister Christine Fulton. A memorial service will be held in coming weeks. Memorial gifts may be made to Humane Animal Rescue of Pittsburgh. Arrangements entrusted to WEDDELL-AJAK FUNERAL HOME, Aspinwall.
