

EUGENE "CHAM" CHAMBOREDON

It is with great sorrow to announce the passing of Eugene "Cham" Chamboredon. He peacefully passed away on March 30, 2024 in Biloxi, Mississippi at the VA Hospital. Born January 8, 1940 in East Liberty. He graduated from Central Catholic. Then he went on to serve his country in the army, when he came out of the army he went and worked for Equitable GAS company. He loved to play basketball, bowling and football. He also loved to coach little league football in Bloomfield.

After 40 yrs. in Pgh., he moved to FL, where he met his wife of 44 years, Patricia. They loved dancing and bowling together, they would also go deep sea fishing.

Due to Pat's job they moved to Mississippi, that is when Gene retired. They picked up another sport together which they became golfers and became members of The Pass Christian Golf Club. Wherever he lived he always rooted for the Steelers, he even will in Heaven.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia; stepdaughters, Kimberly (Tom) Simpson, Diane (Brian) Fischer, Kimberly Chiappale; daughter-in-law, Adrienne Shaffer; sons, Eugene (BettyAnn), Louis (Bethany); brother, Dennis Chamboredon of Etna; grandchildren, Mark and Chad Fischer, Brittini, Jackson and Tyler Shaffer, Ashely and Louie Chamboredon; great-grandchildren, Dallas Shaffer, Alexa, Jackson, Emma and Philamina; many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Catherine and Louis; sister, Margarete Murdocke and Kathleen Gourman; his stepson, John Shaffer; and his granddaughter, Alicia.

He will be laid to rest in Mississippi, where he presently resides.

May he rest in peace. Go Steelers!
