

The Kitzes Lab in the Department of Biology at the University of Pittsburgh seeks a Research Technician to work in Pittsburgh, PA, and contribute to analysis of acoustic biodiversity data sets. Will work on the application of methods for identifying the species present in field audio recordings and use statistical models to understand species spatial and temporal distributions.

Apply at
<https://www.join.pitt.edu>,
#24002805.