

PATRICK JOSEPH KINLEY

Age 81, of South Fayette Twp., after a long battle with cancer, passed away on Monday, April 8, 2024 at his home in the arms of his bride. He is survived by his beloved wife, Beverly Jean (Agnew) Kinley for 28 years; his daughters, Kristen Kinley and Michelle Kinley; his grandchildren, Zachary Basil and Noelle Zies, Jordan (Kelly) Kincaide, Jonathan (Monica) Kincaide, and Jaxson Kincaide; and his great-granddaughter Melina Kincaide. Patrick was the brother of Bob (Joanne) Kinley, Kevin (Libet) Kinley and the late Dean (Cindy) Kinley; son of the late Louis and Elma (Sherman) Kinley. Also survived by many loving nieces and nephews. Patrick proudly attended the University of Iowa in Iowa City, where he received his Masters of Sociology. He went on to teach history and sociology at Padua Catholic High School in Cleveland, Ohio. Patrick made an impact on many students at Padua, receiving phone calls even recently that he was their "favorite teacher". After teaching, Patrick went on to the home building industry, where he had a very diverse career. For most of his career he worked for Ryan Homes in management, sales, marketing and consulting. After retirement, Patrick loved going on cruises and traveling with his beloved bride, and enjoyed antiquing, reading, and gardening. He will be remembered for being a lover of all things Iowa, his whistling, for his birthday song that all family and friends looked forward to receiving on their birthday, and most of all love for family and friends. He will be dearly missed by all. Funeral arrangements by BEINHAUERS. Friends and Family are welcome at 2828 Washington Rd.
