

CAROLYN CONLEY

Carolyn Conley, 85, of Savannah, Georgia, formerly of Allentown, and born and raised in Pittsburgh, PA, passed away suddenly at St. Joseph's Hospital, Savannah, on April 9. She was the daughter of the late Carl and Pauline Prosser; and the wife of the late Thomas M. Conley, with whom she shared 56 years of marriage before his passing in 2018.

She was proud of her 20-year career in the insurance industry, as both a customer service agent and a licensed insurance agent for Prudential and The Hartford. Carolyn's love for her daughters was central to her life. Carolyn particularly enjoyed their activities at Emmaus High School and was a proud band parent of Erin. She also looked forward to preparing big meals for holiday celebrations.

Carolyn is survived by her beloved daughters, Lori Creasy (David) and Erin Conley (Jim Lindholm). In addition to her husband and parents, she was predeceased by her brother, Paul Prosser.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Tuesday, April 16, 2024 at St. Ann's R.C.C., 415 S 6th St., Emmaus, PA 18049 at 10:30 AM. A Calling Hour will be held from 9:30-10:30, prior to Mass, with Internment following at Resurrection Cemetery. STEPHENS FUNERAL HOME has been entrusted with the arrangements.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the Cancer Research Institute or Best Friends Animal Society.
