

JAMES LASZLO

James "Laz" Laszlo, age 81, sadly passed away suddenly April 6, 2024, at Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh. He was preceded in death by his father, Emery Laszlo, and his mother, Fern Laszlo. He is survived by his wife, Candace; his son, Jamie Laszlo; his daughter, Shannon Day; two stepdaughters, Susan Winker and Laura Watson; sister Carol Kent; and brother Joseph Laszlo. He is also survived by numerous nephews, nieces, and cousins.

Laz was retired from a long career as an HVAC technician. Some of his passions were mustangs, car cruises, the Pittsburgh Penguins, and John Lennon and the Beatles. He was known for his kindness and ability to fix just about anything. He was loved and respected by everyone who knew him. He will be missed and remembered each and every day. Services and burial will be private.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb