

When The Mountains Touch The Sky

It is when we feel that feeling
That we've reached the highest high
When we are with the one we love
And we swear we've touched the sky

And not even when we're making love
But just sitting with the love of our life
And where nothing else in the world matters
Not even the worst kind of strife

For we are in love and it's beautiful
And the feeling doesn't cost a dime
And just looking in each other's eyes
Just spells out the word
divine
