

RAYMOND ROBERT KLING

Raymond Robert Kling, 41, left our world on April 22, 2024, but his indomitable spirit remains around those who loved him. Born on July 8, 1982, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Raymond's life was a testament to the joy and laughter he brought into the lives of everyone he touched.

He was the beloved son of Susan Cramer (Riley); and father to his beautiful daughter Soleil Kling (Timothy), and his two grandchildren, Lincoln and Charlotte Garvin. He was the adored brother to Debbie Scarpari (Tony) and Diana Llewellyn (Melvin), and uncle to nieces and nephews. He also leaves behind numerous family members that include aunts, uncles and cousins.

Raymond was a proud veteran of the Army who served in Iraq. He was also a charismatic car salesman. He never missed an opportunity to brighten someone's day. He was known for his admirable work ethic and infectious personality. He had the gift of making everyone around him smile and laugh, winning the hearts of many.

Raymond's final resting place will be at the VA National Cemetery of the Alleghenies, where he will be honored as the hero he has always been. He was predeceased by his father and Veteran, Gary Kling, whom he wanted to rest beside for eternity.

His burial services will be on Monday, April 29, 2024, at 2:00 p.m. For those wishing to honor Raymond, the family requests contributions to the Wounded Warrior Foundation, a cause close to Raymond's valiant heart. Arrangements entrusted to BALL FUNERAL CHAPEL, INC.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb