

THOMAS DAVID HULL, JR.

Franklin Park resident Thomas David Hull, Jr., a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and man of faith, passed away peacefully on April 29, 2024, surrounded by his loving family. He was 70 years old.

Born in Washington, PA on August 29, 1953, Tom was the son of the late Thomas D. Hull, Sr. and Earlene Mikolay. He was predeceased by his brother, Jay Hull.

Tom's life was a testament to dedication and hard work. He began his career in the automotive industry as a lot attendant and he worked his way to the top. He was known for providing opportunities and mentorship, helping young people launch their careers just as he had.

While the auto industry was his professional passion, woodworking was his creative outlet. He found immense satisfaction in crafting beautiful furniture with his own hands.

Above all, Tom's life was guided by his unwavering faith in Christ. He was a dedicated student of the scriptures and placed his faith at the center of his life.

Tom leaves behind a legacy of love and faith. He is survived by his wife of 49 years, Susan (Haas) Hull; their children, Thomas (Jessica) Hull, Mark (Allison) Hull, and Sarah (Chris) Quinet; nine grandchildren: Julien, Jonah, Marideth, Brady, Erin, Derek, Jocelyn, Lorelai, and Adam; and siblings Joann Clark, Cheryl Russo, James Hull, Daryl Persichetti, and Donna Hull.
